The Memphis Shelby Crime Commission seeks to improve public safety in the Memphis and Shelby County community by identifying and promoting evidence-based best practices.

Established in April 1997, the Crime Commission is an independent, non-profit 501(c)(3) organization that acts as a catalyst to bring agencies together to focus on innovative crime prevention methods. Its initiatives are dependent upon private contributions and grants.

The Memphis Shelby Crime Commission's purpose is to build an unprecedented coalition, weaving together all corners of our community with a common goal: making Memphis and Shelby County safer for everyone.
